

Report on Observance of Vigilance Awareness Week from 31.10.2011 to 05.11.2011

In pursuance of the directions of CVC, New Delhi as contained in their letter dated 11.10.2011, Vigilance Awareness Week was observed in this office w.e.f. 31.10.2011 to 05.11.2011. Following activities were carried out during this week-

The vigilance awareness pledge was administered by DG, NICF to all the officers, staff and AAO Trainees at 11:00AM on 31st Oct. 2011.

The messages of Hon'ble President, Vice President and Prime Minister were read out to the gathering.

The banner of Vigilance Awareness week was displayed at the entrance of NICF for the entire week.

On this occasion an essay competition on "How to make public services corruption free" was organized for the staff and AAO trainees. The prizes were distributed for first three positions.

5. A seminar on the theme of this years' Vigilance Awareness Week- "Participative Vigilance" was conducted on 03.11.2011. There were seventeen speakers. The key note address was delivered by Chief Vigilance Officer, Medical Council of India, New Delhi, Smt. Simmi R. Nakra.