

DR. M. P. TANGIRALA

Additional Secretary,
Department of Financial Services,
Government of India

Profile

Dr. M.P. Tangirala is a senior civil servant with over three decades of experience in public administration, finance, and regulatory affairs. A 1990-batch officer of the Indian P&T Accounts and Finance Service, he has held key positions across multiple government organizations, contributing significantly to telecom policy, law, regulation, financial services, and insurance governance.

An alumnus of the College of Engineering, Guindy; Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Calcutta; Osmania University; Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA); and Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), he has a distinguished academic background. He holds a PhD in Law and Governance from JNU, reflecting his deep expertise in policy and regulatory frameworks.

Professional Experience

Dr. Tangirala has served in various leadership roles across government organizations. In the Department of Telecommunications (DoT), he played a crucial role in shaping telecom policy and regulatory affairs. His tenure included assignments in Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (BSNL) and the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI), where he contributed to telecom sector governance and financial management.

Beyond telecommunications, he has held significant positions in the Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) and the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (IRDAI), overseeing policy formulation and regulatory compliance. His expertise extends to administration, personnel management, and training, demonstrating his versatility in public service.

Dr. Tangirala has also been a board member of several organizations and financial institutions, providing strategic guidance on financial regulation and governance.

Currently, he serves as Additional Secretary in the Department of Financial Services, Government of India, where he is involved in key financial sector policies, banking reforms, and regulatory oversight.

Education

Dr. Tangirala's academic credentials span multiple prestigious institutions:

- PhD in Law and Governance – Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU)
- Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA)
- Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Calcutta
- Osmania University
- College of Engineering, Guindy

Areas of Expertise

- Telecom Policy, Law, and Regulation
- Financial Services and Banking Regulation
- Insurance Policy and Governance
- Administration and Personnel Management
- Public Sector Training and Capacity Building