

SHASHANK SHEKHAR AGARWAL

Deputy Director,
Department of Telecommunications,
Government of India

Profile

Shashank Shekhar Agarwal is a technical and policy expert currently serving as Deputy Director in the Department of Telecommunications (DoT), Government of India. With a strong background in engineering and telecommunications policy, he has been contributing to India's telecom sector since August 2018. His expertise spans telecom regulations, technology management, and digital governance.

A graduate of the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Roorkee, he has a deep understanding of engineering systems, digital infrastructure, and emerging technologies. His technical proficiency extends to SolidWorks, C++, and HTML, which complement his work in telecom policy and regulatory affairs.

Professional Experience

Shashank Shekhar Agarwal has been associated with the Department of Telecommunications (DoT) since 2018, where he plays a vital role in policy implementation, regulatory compliance, and technology-driven governance in the telecom sector. His contributions are focused on enhancing India's telecom infrastructure, ensuring regulatory efficiency, and supporting digital transformation initiatives.

Education

He holds a Bachelor of Technology (B.Tech.) from the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Roorkee. His academic foundation in engineering and technology equips him with a strong analytical and problem-solving approach.

He completed his secondary education at Seth Anandram Jaipuria School, Kanpur (2006–2008) and high school at City Montessori School, Lucknow (1996–2006).

Areas of Expertise

- Telecommunications Policy & Regulation
- Technology & Digital Infrastructure
- Engineering Systems & Analysis
- Programming & Software Development (C++, HTML, SolidWorks)