MANAGEMENT OF TRAINING COURSE (MOT)

Introduction

The Management of Training Course for the training managers has been designed to facilitate close linkages between training and performance at the workplace, through the establishment of a training function in Government Departments, attached offices, subordinate offices, autonomous bodies, and Public Sector Units. The course will contribute to the development of the training function by defining the concept, clarifying the role of the training manager, and equipping him/her with the necessary knowledge and skills to facilitate systematic linkages between performance problems and training.

Aim

The Course aims to train managers for the implementation of training Policy in Ministries/Departments/Organizations.

Designed For

The MoT course is designed for Training Managers / Officers involved in the training activities from Government Departments, attached offices, subordinate offices, autonomous bodies, and public sector undertakings. No previous exposure to training is required. It is, however, expected that after completion of the workshop, the participants on their return will be involved with the training function.

Style of the Course

The course consists of a distance learning phase wherein participants are sent some training-related documents with the concept of the Systematic Approach to Training and National Training Policy. This is followed by a one-week (5 working days) workshop wherein participants will be provided learning opportunities which will include activities concerned with the application of concepts, practice, issues, and management of training function in an organization / Government Department.

The workshop is based on an intensive series of individual and team activities. This requires full-time commitment for the full five days, including some evening study. We therefore assume that course participants will be either residential or within easy commuting distance.

A comprehensive set of handouts and performance aids, including checklists and flow charts, will be provided. These are intended to provide participants with information needed during the workshop and provide ready reference material for performing their role of training manager in the training function. The performance aids will help in completing their individual project, and also assist in developing competence for effective performance of their role by facilitating transfer of learning in their own work situation.

Objectives

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

1. Describe the four stages of systematic training.
2. Describe salient features of adult learning.
3. Describe the training function and the Role of the Training manager.
4. Describe salient features of the National Training Policy and its implications.
5. Identify organizational and individual training needs.
6. Segregate training and non-training interventions.

7. Enumerate steps involved in the process of conducting TNA, design, development, implementation, and evaluation of the training.
8. Frame the “Terms of Reference”(TOR) for the conduct of TNA Study, design, development, implementation, and evaluation of the training programme, and review the outcomes with concerned agencies/authorities.
9. Prepare implementation schedules for in-house training activities.
10. Describe the importance of ethics in effective performance.

Project

On completion of the workshop, participants will be required to complete an agreed individual project for submission to the Course Coordinator. The completed project will be assessed by the course tutor, who will assess its technical merit based on laid-down parameters. On successful completion of the project, the participants will be awarded a certificate recognized by the Government of India from the Institute where they have attended the workshop.
